Continental Travel

From day trips to France, to complete overnight stays in Europe, we provide a total European Service. With recent trips to France, Italy, Spain, Belgium and Holland, we can take passengers anywhere in the European community.

Our drivers have superior knowledge and experience in the European community, with this in mind we are proud to offer a complete service that fits your requirements.

From our London offices, we organise your European travel from start to finish, you will not need to worry about booking ferries, or channel tunnel passes, just simply tell us where you would like to be picked up from and at what time and we will be there.
